To Whom It May Concern:

I give my highest praise and commendation to Mr. John Duque for his work in preparing our students for the TOEFL examination.

He taught ten of our students whose English skills were at varying levels, giving each student individual attention. He took time with many of them after classes for individual attention. Mr. Duque offered extra classes for students who could not attend regular classes. He is efficient, extremely organized, professional, warm and communicative with students.

We were extremely pleased with his services and plan to have him teach this class again in January, 2010.

Yours truly,
